

May No.1	Questions
----------	-----------	--

1. Please explain the holidays during the Golden Week.
2. While March 3rd is known as the Peach Festival or Doll's Festival to celebrate girls growing up, May 5th is the Boy's Day Festival and celebrate the growing up for boys. What kind of ornaments are displayed then?
3. There is a word called Toryumon, or gateway to success. Do you know what legends come from?
4. What is the Toryumon or gateway of success for becoming a novelist in Japan?
5. Please explain about Nishikigoi, or colored carp.

May No.1	Questions
----------	-----------	--

6. The most popular of the Nishikigoi are the so-called "Gosanke" or the big three. "Kohaku", "Taisho Sanshoku" and "Showa Sanshoku". What are the colors and the patterns of each?

7. "Gosanke" is one of the collective expressions used to name the three most influential, most famous, highest rated, or most popular people in a field, but how was expression originally used for?

8. Please introduce the "Gosanke" that you know.

9. One of the most popular models for the Boys' May Festival dolls is Momotaro, or Peach Boy, which is mentioned in old folktales. Please tell me the plot of the story of Momotaro.

10. What were the roles of Momotaro's three servants from a military perspective?