March No.3	Questions

- 1. March is the season for graduation ceremonies. Please select a favorite song from the songs sung at the graduation ceremony and tell us about the contents of the lyrics.
- 2. Steve Jobs, the founder of Apple, gave a very famous speech at the graduation ceremony at Stanford University in 2005. In the first part of the speech, there was much laughter from the audience. What did he say?

- 3. Jobs gave his commencement address when he was 50 years old. In his speech, he says he has been doing something every day for the past 33 years. What is it?
- 4. Where do you keep the diploma?
- 5. Do you ever look back at your graduation album? When do you look back? If not, why don't you look back?
- 6. Would you like to participate if you receive a letter for a reunion? Or would you rather not participate? Why is that so?

March No.3	Questions

7. This year, March 20th is spring equinox day and September 22nd is the autumn equinox day. What does spring equinox day mean?

8. Then what is the time of sunrise and sunset on spring equinox day?

9. Spring Equinox Day and Autumn Equinox Day are called equinoctial week. When is the equinoctial week?

10. The Japanese word for equinox, "higan", comes from Buddhism, what does it mean?

11. Many people visit the graves of their ancestors during the equinoctial week. Why does everyone visit the ancestors' graves during the equinox?